CARRIED AT THE MUZZLE OF THE RIFLE

BOW RECKLESS WESTERN OFFICIALS ASSUMED CONTROL OF A PENITENTIARY.

Canon City, Col., Dec. 2.-Great excitement has been caused by the sudden capture of the peni-tentiary shortly after midnight by S. J. Toy, who last evening received the appointment as warden the wounded bird in Paterson, and made consider from Governor Waite. Toy had come from Denver by the first train, arriving here at 1:20 a. m. He was met by ex-Deputy dience, son-in-law of the Governor, who was removed by Warden McLester this week, accompanied by an employe of the prison, who had permission to be absent until a late hour. Stealthly approaching the prison, the employe gave the proper signal and the outer door was opened for his admission. All three sprang in, was opened for his admission. All three sprang in, covering the guards and disarming them. The inner gate was passed in the same way. Bence was then recognized and ordered out, but he exhibited a new appointment as deputy, signed by Toy, who in turn presented his own credentials.

Guards who had become alarmed by the display of firearms began blowing the alarm whistle, and McLester was awakened. As he stepped out of his bedroom he was ordered to leave the penitentiary grounds at once. He asked permission to go to the office and arrange his papers, but that was refused. With a man in each side of him the deposed warden was conducted to the outer gate and ordered to depart. Toy and Bence are now in supreme control, denying admission to all comers. Under no pretext can any one secure entrance. The usual labor of the convicts upon the great State ditch was suspended this morning, as the gates would have to be opened to let the laborers out. McLester is still here, and says that he will recapture the place from which he was so unceremoniously ousted.

L. AND N. SWITCHMEN STRIKE.

St. Louis, Dec. 2.-Seventeen switchmen in the Louisville and Nashville yards at East St. Louis struck last evening because of the failure of the road to restore the recent reduction. The men went out without orders from headquarters, and the strike will not extend.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The north wing of the Cap-itol Building looked like the Ice Palace of St. Petersburg this morning. Early in the morning, while the thermometer was still suffering from the knockdown blow given to it by the northwest wind while the thermometer was still suffering from the knockdown blow given to it by the northwest wind last night, somebody conceived the idea of washing off the outside of the building. A fire engine was sent for, and walls and porticos were thoroughly drenched. Of course the water froze as it fell, and the walls and steps were soon covered with a coating of ice. The water ran down and covered the terraces and approach to the building with ice also, and the whole place resembled a stating rink. It was necessary to sprinkle sawdens around the approaches, and with the slush,

A FINE GRAY EAGLE SHOT.

A YOUNG HUNTER KILLS IT NEAR PASSAIC. NEW-JERSEY.

Eagles are rare birds in this part of the country. and it is two years or more since The Tribune re-corded the shooting of one on Garrett Rock, which overlooks Paterson, N. J. It was then considered so phenomenal that the fortunate hunter exhibited able money thereby. The rapid growth of Passaic County has made all wild birds scarce in the few remaining bits of woodland, but on Tuesday another eagle was shot near Passaic by Charles Pilling, who, though only eighteen years old, is a good shot.

good shot.

Pilling lives with his father on the Otto Farm, just outside the city of Passaic. He saw a large bird circling in the air near the Otto Bridge A well-directed shot brought the bird down, and it died almost instantly. Though extremely young, it was a fine specimen of a gray eagle, which, lifty years ago, was no uncommon bird in the northern New-Jersey woods. The bird's body measured twenty-two inches, and the fine wings, when spread out, measured sixty-four inches from tip to tip.

BANK TELLER AND CASH MISSING.

Salem, Mass., Dec. 2.—Clarence Murphy, receiving eller of the Salem Savings Bank, disappeared to lay. For some time the directors of the bank have what irregular. Murphy was questioned by the bank officials this morning relative to entries on the books. To their questions he made evasive an books. To their questions he made evasive answers. A few moments later he entered the safe and then walked out of the doors. Not coming back, the officials looked in the safe. A hasty examback, the officials looked in the safe. A hasty examination revealed the fact that a package containing $500 was missing. The police were informed, and is search is being made for Murphy. Murphy was well known in Salem and bore an excellent reputation. The news of his departure created great surprise. Experts are at work on the books of the bank. At Murphy's home, in a boarding-house on Federal-st., it was said that about 11 o'clock a messenger called at the house and asked for Mrs. Murphy Mrs. Murphy received a note from the messenger and immediately packed up her trunk and left the house. It is said that Mrs. Murphy, who is a handsome woman, has been dressing in a manner which was apparently beyond her husband's means. It is thought that Murphy has gone somewhere in the State of Murphy. He is thirtyfive years of age and married a South Boston girl only two months ago.

Personally I think were no other considerations. Personally I think the Cardinal has too much reverence for American institutions to favor any such move. I do not know what the outcome of the movement in New-York will be, but you can safely say that in Maryland the Legislature will not at this session be asked for aid for Roman Catholic parochial schools."

ANNOYING BLOCKADE ON THE ELEVATED ROAD. A long and vexatious blockade was caused on the Sixth-ave, cievated railroad at 2 p. m. yester-day through engine No. 205 jumping the track on he sharp curve at Murray and Church sts., while irawing a downtown train. The forward wheels f the engine went entirely over the wooden guardtail, which was badly splintered, and a length or two f the track rails were displaced. When the engine auddenly left the track the cars were brought to standstill with a violent shock, which caused brief panic among the passengers, who afterward the Park Place station. A wrecking train was sent from the Battery, and after nearly an hour's hard work with jacks and hawsers the engine was eplaced upon the track and was taken to Rector-st Meanwhile train after train was "stalled" until he blockade extended as far as Twenty-third-st.
